Tony Foster, colored, forty years old, known to the Police as "Pawnee Bill," was found dead yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in an abandoned boat on the bank of the City Dock at Twenty-eighth Street. The body was found by Patroiman Daniel, who thought that the negro had met with foul play. However, an investigation by Coroner Taylor and Detective-Sergeants Wiley and Kellam disclosed the fact that Foster had died from natural causes. He had been ill for some time and was homeless. He had been sleeping in the boat for several months.
